And a Thousand Fighters Call Him Dad!

HERE is a new kind of fighter in this war. He wears a uniform but he doesn't carry a gun. He carries cheer and comfort and a great big heart the Knights of Columbus, the Jewish Welfare Board or the Salvation Army. He doesn't care—and neither does your boy.

This new kind of fighter is making a new kind of fight. He is fighting against lonesomeness and heart-ache and monotony and worry. He is fighting for that quality which wins wars-morale! Your boy has it. This man is fighting to let him keep it.

Maybe your boy hasn't had a letter for a long time. Or maybe there was something that worried him in the letter that he got this

Or maybe he has had a disappointment—hoped for promotion and didn't get it. Or maybe he'd give a million dollars just to see his folks one minute.

It hurts to lock up things like that, deep down inside your heart. It helps to pour them out

And that is where this man comes in—the Daddy of them all. They know that he will understand—that he won't laugh or preach, They know that he is there with the right word and the right pat on the back when it's needed most.

You Daddies of America, you men who want to go and can't, let's keep this Daddy on the job!
